Dear Member

Please below, the latest news/update from UKHospitality for your information:

TV Licensing

TV Licensing recommends that any of members running a business that no longer needs a TV Licence after being forced to close that is paying by Direct Debit cancels it online with their bank. Clients with businesses that have paid for a licence in full will be able to apply for a refund backdated to the date they closed. For further information please visit: www.tvlicensing.co.uk

Copyright

UKH and BBPA have asked PPL and PRS to suspend copyright payments during the crisis period, we expect to hear from them imminently. We have also asked MPLC to suspend payments and approaches to businesses.

Premises licence fees

UKH has asked the Home Office for premises licence fees (and other relevant payments and renewals) to be suspended whilst premises are closed, we will keep members updated.

Take care, kind regards & be safe
